Speaker: Lucy & Gene Tokheim, owners of Tokheim Stoneware

Topic: Tokheim Stoneware

Lucy & Gene Tokheim have created wheel-thrown stoneware pottery and sculpture since 1973. Having studied and taught Norwegian folk art both at Vesterheim Museum in Decorah, IA, and at Raulands Akademi in Telemark, Norway, their work is inspired by the many details found in Scandinavian folk art. Tokheim Stoneware can be found as part of the permanent collection of the Vesterheim Museum and has traveled in several international exhibitions. The Tokheims' studio is a collection of restored farm outbuildings between Dawson and Montevideo, Minnesota.

Speaker: Lisa Peters, Author

Topic: Book: "Fractured Land: the price of inheriting oil"

What does an environmentalist do when she realizes she will inherit mineral rights and royalties on fracked oil wells in North Dakota? How does she decide between financial security and living as a committed conservationist who wants to leave her grandchildren a healthy world? Lisa Westberg Peters is the author of many children's books, including several geology-related titles. Trained as a journalist, she now works as an academic writing tutor at Metropolitan State University in St. Paul.

Speaker: Cheryl Grasmoen (Charter Member of Lakselaget)

Topic: The Modern Pilgrim

Since 2007, our charter member, Cheryl Grasmoen, carrying only a 12-pound backpack, has walked nearly 1,000 miles in pilgrimages. This includes the famous Camino de Santiago de Compostela in Spain, leading to the legendary site of the resting place of the body of St. James, and the Via Francigena, over the Roman road to Rome.

Cheryl's presentation will focus on the modern pilgrim - Who is she? Why does she make pilgrimage? How does she do it? What strengthens and sustains her on this arduous journey? How do her pilgrimage and the people with whom she shares this journey shape her and change her?

As Cheryl transitions into retirement after a long career as a lawyer, she is spending more time on pilgrimage. She currently serves as President of the American Pilgrims on the Camino, a 1,600 member organization that supports past and future pilgrims and the infrastructure of the Camino in Europe. In addition to walking, Cheryl has also managed pilgrim hostels twice in Spain and has volunteered in the Pilgrim Office in Santiago de Compostela during two autumns.

Speaker: Dennis Gimrestad, MNDOT Engineer (retired)

Topic: Bridging Continents, Bridging the River: Norwegian-American Engineers and the Mississippi in the Twin Cities

The Mississippi River bridges in Minneapolis and St. Paul have long been icons of the Twin Cities. Many were the work of Norwegian immigrant engineers, who came to America with valuable skills for building the nation's infrastructure. Today, several of their bridges are being rehabilitated by state and local agencies for continuing transportation use.

Dennis Gimrestad is recently retired from the Cultural Resources Unit of the Minnesota Department of Transportation, and previously worked for the State Historic Preservation Office of the Minnesota Historical Society. He serves on the board of the Norwegian-American Historical Association in Northfield, MN.
